

TOILET

TRAINING

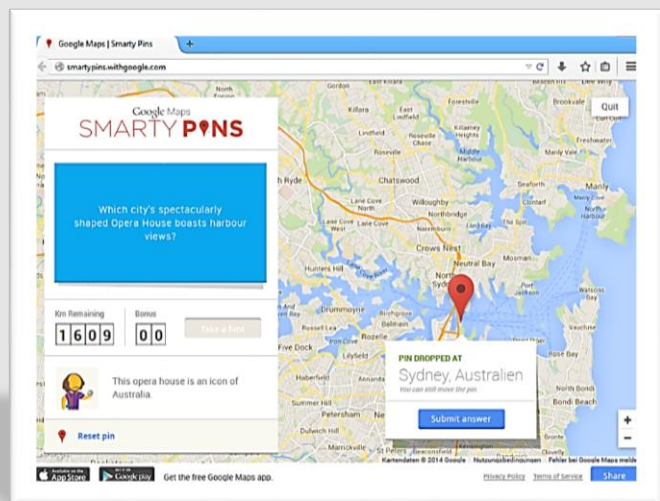

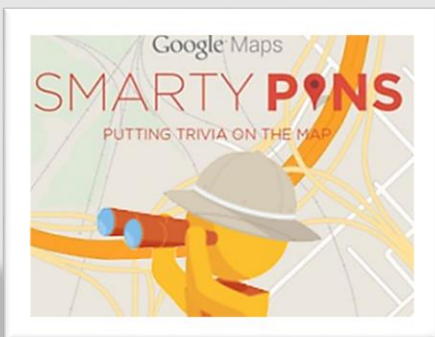

Did you know...

Students (anyone, really!) can practice geography and trivia with the new Smarty Pins game by Google!

Google SMARTY PINS or go to smartypins.withgoogle.com to give it a try!

Google generates a random trivia question about a specific city or country, and you must drop a pin on the correct location on the map.

Players can choose from six trivia categories: Featured Topics, Arts & Culture, Science & Geography, Sports & Games, Entertainment, History & Current Events.

Too much to remember?
